Attention Reeder

You may have noticed that the Index above looks a bit different!

Well, as we were finishing up this issue, our main computer monitor went down. So, we just used a regular computer print out for this Index. Also, you may notice other things that look a bit different. This is due to using a different computer (a loaner) than our regular one because of the breakdown last month. This also slowed us up a few days in getting the June issue to you.

Hopelully for the July issue we have our main computer back in working order.

We appreciate your patience in this matter and we sincerely apologize for any trouble this has caused our subscribers.
